

Timber Stain & Preserver

Information Summary

- BitPost timber stain and preserver
 - Available in: 4litre and 20litre cans
 - Manufactured and Marketing by: Biosymph Ltd
 - eMail: Sales@biosymph.co.nz or admin@biosymph.co.nz
 - Contact Pierre: +64 (0)7 829 8606 or +64 (0)22 607 6400
 - Price (See WebSite www.biosymph.co.nz for latest price list)
 - Free delivery Nation Wide in New Zealand
-
- Creosote / Carbolineum alternative
 - Preservation of wooden structures, specifically as a fence preserver
 - New Zealand manufactured
 - Bituminous / emulsion polymer product
 - High degree of water repellence
 - Retard distortion, movement and splitting of timber
 - Non-Flammable
 - Non-corrosive to metals
 - Application by brushing or dipping, can be sprayed
 - Apply to dry timber
 - Stir prior to use
 - Don't thin or dilute
 - Timber requires one coat only
 - One litre will cover approximately 3 to 4 linear meters of post and rail (3 rails) fence
 - One litre will cover approximately 2 to 3 square meters
 - The timber will require a recoat after 3 to 5 years
 - Storage life of 12 months
 - Some sediment might form at the bottom of the container which will dissolve when stirred
 - Not to be used as a marine anti-fouling paint
 - Not to be used as a pruning paint on trees or shrubs
 - Not to be used in the commercial treatment of timber
-
- Wear eye/face protection as splashes are likely during use
 - Excess on skin may be removed with olive oil
 - Wash the affected area with soap and water
 - Avoid inhaling vapours
 - May be harmful if swallowed
 - Can cause serious eye damage
 - Call Poisons Centre 0800 764 766 or local doctor if patient feels unwell
 - Launder contaminated clothing before re-use
 - Stains can be removed with kerosene or diesel
 - Avoid contaminating streams and natural waterways
 - If container is not to be recycled, crush or puncture before disposing to approved landfill or hazardous waste facility